

Presentations, Talk Broadcast Tonight

"Little Oscar" and President Roosevelt will highlight the airwaves tonight at 10:45 through WIBA, WGN, WBBM, and WMAQ in connection with the annual awards of the Motion Picture Academy of Arts and Science. "Little Oscar" is the popular name given the gold statuettes, symbolical of extraordinary film work, which each year are awarded to the "bests" in acting, pictures, direction, etc. The president will be heard from Washington while Producer Walter Wanger will be in charge of presentations from Hollywood.

Other outstanding programs for tonight and Fridaytime follow, classified:

Discussion

8:35 p. m.—Town Hall of Air (WENR): Walter Wanger, producer, Rosalind Russell, actress, and Donald Ogden Stewart, writer, on "How Should Movies Aid National Defense."

9:15 p. m.—Public Affairs (WBBM): Sen. Charles Tobey (R., N. H.) on "Which Way America," opposing the lend-lease bill.

9:30 p. m.—Sen. Hattie Caraway (D., Ark.) (WMAQ): supporting the lend-lease bill.

Popular Music

7 p. m.—Horace Heidt (WLS): introducing "Peter the Piper."

7:30 p. m.—Tommy Dorsey (WLS): "When Sleepy Stars Begin to Fall."

8 p. m.—Yvette-Xavier Cugat (WENR): the samba, "Aquarela Brasileira," imported from the carnival at Rio de Janeiro.

Serious Music

9:30 p. m.—Chicago Symphony (WGN): Edmund Kurtz, cellist, soloist. Orchestra plays Berlioz' "Overture to Benvenuto Cellini" and Williams' "A London Symphony."

12 p. m.—Music You Desire (WENR): Pianist Mischa Levitzki playing Mendelssohn's "Rondo Capriccioso in E."

Variety

7:30 p. m.—In Chicago Tonight (WGN): Audrey Christie and Philip Loeb in "The Valiant," plus music by Eddy Duchin.

8 p. m.—Bing Crosby (WIBA, WMAQ): Fay Bainter of the films, and the Ink Spots of song are guests.

9 p. m.—Rudy Vallee (WIBA, WMAQ): Jimmy Durante matches vocal chords and profiles with John Barrymore.

Drama

7:30 p. m.—The Aldrich Family (WMAQ): the ink spot remover is essential to Henry's disposition.

Quiz

6:30 p. m.—Vox Pop (WBBM): from Havana, Cuba, with Pres. Fulgencio Batista.

Fridaytime

1 p. m.—Music Appreciation (WIBA): a study of human voice in song.