

Dizzy Dean Will Be Heard With Bob Hope's Program

Red Cross Nursing Group To Conduct Jane Delano Service; N. Y. City Draft Chief To Speak On "We, The People"

Dizzy Dean, big-league baseball's No. 1 clown, will appropriately attach himself to the Bob Hope-Jerry Colonna-Brenda and Cobina bloc for WEAF's broadcast of Tuesday at 10 p. m.

Almost anything may be expected of the screwball who one scorching day turned up in an Indian blanket on the St. Louis Cardinals' diamond and built a fire on the home plate.

"On Whom the Bell Told," story of a bit of bat-bell exercising that let both Willis and his papa right thru the living room floor and into the terrier tepee, will be the best seller offered by "Uncle Walter's Dog House," on WEAF broadcast on Tuesday at 10:30 p. m.

The Red Cross nursing organization will conduct a Jane Delano service from National headquarters at 11:15 a. m. Wednesday over WOR and its affiliated stations. Messages by the army and navy nurses corps and an army nurse on active duty will be included in the program.

Colonel Arthur V. McDermott, Director of Selective Service for New York City, will speak on "We, The People" after which the listeners will be taken to Fort Dix, N. J., where six selectees will be interviewed on the program, Tuesday over WABC at 9:00 p. m.

Charles Berman, of Brooklyn one of two brothers, heirs of their brother, Moses Berman, will guest on the Court of Missing Heirs program Tuesday at 8:00 p. m. over WABC to claim an estate valued at more than $12,000. One of the largest and most dramatic cases involving $350,000 will be dramatized on the program in an effort to locate the missing heirs to the estate of Frank C. Dodson, who died recently in Wichita Falls, without ever knowing oil was discovered on his dust bowl property.

Billy Mills' orchestra will feature Rimsky-Korsakoff's in
