

Helen Miranda To Enliven McCarthy's Program Sunday

South American To Challenge Quips of Charlie And Genial But Be- fuddled Prof. Edwin Carp

Helen Miranda will bring her sparkling South American to the WEAFF broadcast Sunday at 8 p. m. as a challenge to the wits of Charlie McCarthy, and to the genial but befuddled Prof. Edwin Carp.

Miss Miranda, who quit high school at 17 years old for playing piano in an orchestra, will take the board of the "Bandstand" down WEAFF Sunday at 8 p. m.

A salute to the occasion will be given of its 23rd birthday will be given by WEAFF Sunday at 12 noon.

The program will feature orchestra music, soloists, talks by high Army and Navy officials, nationally known news commentators and executives of the American Legion. A description of the activities being conducted by Legionnaires and others in the National Guard now called to active service at Camp Shelby, Miss., will be a highlight of the broadcast.

Ed Ross, a one-handed pianist, who lost the use of his right arm when fighting in Spain's Civil war, will be given a chance at fame on the Your Dream Has Come True program Sunday, 5:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Helen Hayes will be given an opportunity for one of the most powerful and emotional characterizations of her career when the First Lady of Theatre presents a special adaptation of Eugene O'Neill's play, "The Straw," over WABC Sunday at 8 p. m.

Science and romance are in conflict in "The Magic Darkness," an original radio drama which will star Jeffry Lynn on the "Silver Theatre" broadcast, Sunday on WABC at 6 p. m.

Mirth, melody and romance will be combined on the "Screen Guild Theatre" over WABC Sunday at 7:30 p. m., when Olivia de Havilland, Robert Young and Charles Winninger will be starred in a radio version of the film laugh-fest, "My Love Came Back."
