

eful trio you hear Saturdays on the re known to you as "Ann, Pat and reverse order so the identification is
n) Speaker, Patricia (Pat) Clayton

• • • •

Mrs. Lemstra Region Flag Day over WBBM

The American Legion will honor Flag day with a special broadcast over WBBM at 8:15 tonight in which Paul V McNutt, federal security administrator, and Mrs. L. J. Lemstra, national president of the Legion auxiliary, will speak. McNutt is a former national commander of the veterans' organization.

Other attractions tonight:

Music

7:30 p. m. — NBC Symphony (WIBA, WCFL): Charles O'Connell, conductor; "Prelude, Chorale, and Fugue." Bach; "Unfinished" symphony, Schubert; "The Flying Dutchman" overture, Wagner; "Valse Triste" and "Finlandia," Sibelius.

8 p. m. — Chicagoland Hour (WGN): Dennis Morgan, Marion Claire, Earl Wilkie, chorus, and orchestra; "Babes in Toyland" march, Herbert; "My Name Is Mimi," Puccini; "Song of the Vagabonds," Friml; "Connecticut Yankee" and "Fortune-Teller" selections.

◆ ◆ ◆

Variety

6:30 p. m. — Duffy's Tavern (WBBM): closes for the summer.

7 p. m. — National Barn Dance (WLS): observes Flag day with entertainers from St. Sheridan and Great Lakes.

8 p. m. — Uncle Ezra (WIBA, WMAQ): honors Flag and Father's day.

8:30 p. m. — Scott Field (WLS): band, quartet, hillbilly band, and soloists.

◆ ◆ ◆

Drama

8:30 p. m. — Northwestern University Players (WIBA, WMAQ): "These Things Are True," with choral and verse-speaking interludes.

◆ ◆ ◆

Discussion

9 p. m. — People's Platform (WBBM): William L. Shirer, three newspapermen on the war.