

11-Year Old Youth Conducts NBC Orchestra Tonight at 7:30

LORIN MAASEL

An 11-year old maestro will make radio history tonight when the NBC Summer Symphony orchestra is heard through WIBA and WCFL at 7:30. The infant prodigy-conductor will be Lorin Maasel and will lead the orchestra in "Italian" Symphony by Mendelssohn, the "Cradle Song" by Dika Newlin, and Overture to Rienzi by Wagner. Dr. Frank Black will introduce Maasel after he opens the program with Overture "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn.

Other attractions tonight:

Music

8 p. m. — Chicagoland Hour (WBN): with Michael Wilkomirski, violinist, others; Lehar selections, "Giannina Mia," Cohan medley.

Discussion

8:15 p. m. — Public Affairs (WBBM): Howard O. Hunter on "WPA Workers and National Defense."

Drama

6:30 p. m.—City Desk (WBBM): at new time.

Variety

6 p. m. — Spotlight (WBBM): amateurs at new hour.

7 p. m.—Barn Dance (WLS): celebrates July 4.

8 p. m. — Whoopin' Holler (WMAQ): new series, with Col. Quincy and his summer campers.