

That surprised look in the eyes of Nanette Sargent is due to her rapid rise on the ladder of fame. An assuming starlet, Nanette can't understand why she was picked for the role of Lulu in "Ma Perkins", NBC-Red network's Monday through Friday series from Chicago studios.

Broadcast to Salute Neighbor Colombia With Music, Talk

Colombia, third largest country in South America, will be featured in the Good Neighbors broadcast at 8:30 tonight over WMAQ. Dr. Gabriel Turkey, Colombian ambassador to Washington, will be guest speaker, and two concert orchestras will play Colombian music. A dramatization will trace the country's historic and cultural growth.

Other attractions tonight:

Discussion

10:05 p. m.—Business and Professional Women's Clubs (WMAQ): Mary Craig McGeachy, of British embassy; Graciela Mandujano, director of rural education in Chile.

Music

8 p. m.—Cuga Rhumba Revue (WENR): "Negra Leonor" (the hiccup song), Schubert's "Serenade," "Maria Elena."

11 p. m.—Music You Want (WENR): "Artist's Life," Mozart's "German Dances."

Sports

7:30 p. m.—Baseball (WCFL):

White Sox vs. Washington (on WIND at 7:45).

Drama

8 p. m.—Death Valley Drama (WBBM): "Cash at the Grave-side."

6:30 p. m.—The Aldrich Family (WMAQ): father and son go fishing.

Variety

8 p. m.—Fanny Brice (WIBA, WMAQ): and Frank Morgan sing "The Hut Sut Song."

7 p. m.—Music Hall (WIBA, WMAQ): Bing Crosby, Rita Hayworth, Wingy Manone, Jerry Lester, Bob Burns, Connie Boswell.

8 p. m.—Rudy Vallee (WIBA, WMAQ): and John Barrymore, with Martha Raye, in "Martha, the Sewing Machine Girl."

Fridaytime

5:15 p. m. — Radio Magic (WENR): tongues for walls.

5:30 p. m.—Barrel of Fun (WBBM): new series, with Charlie Ruggles, Linda Ware, others.

Joe Louis

Louisville Nears Association Lead