

Mr. Meek Has His Troubles Picking Spot For Vacation

Vicious Racket Exposed On "Mr. District Attorney" Program; Quiz Kids Return With More Puzzlers

Mr. Meek picks the mountains as the logical spot for the family vacation Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. over WABC, but Agatha holds out for the south while Louie wants to go to the beach and see the pretty girls.

After serious domestic difficulty, Mortimer wins out and the mountains win. Frank Readick, Addie Klein, Jack Smart and Marjorie Davies star in this half hour program featuring the music of Elliot Jacoby.

Once more a vicious racket rears its ugly head in "The Case of the Crimson Cab" to be presented on the "Mr. District Attorney" program Wednesday at 8:30 p. m., over WEA. An independent taxi driver is threatened by mobsters unless he'll pay them "protection" money. Death on wheels speeds thru the city streets until the D. A. is able to combat the mob.

Living up to her promise of becoming a fixture on the "Quiz Kids" board, Mary Margaret Dougherty, 14-year-old Chicago schoolgirl, headed off all male competition on last week's show and assured herself a place on the panel for Wednesday at 7 p. m. over WJZ.

Returning to the board will be oldtimer Gerard Darrow, eight-year-old flora and fauna expert. Gerard has been on a total of 28 sessions at various times since the show was launched a little more than a year ago.

Claude Brenner, 12; Jack Lucal, 14, and Richard Williams, 11, will complete the lineup. Quizmaster Joe Kelly will preside.
