Today, with giant planes bolting thru the blue, a transcontinental flight doesn't sound like much. Eighteen years ago, however, Lt. John A. MacReady (now a major) and Capt Oakley Kelly made several unsuccessful attempts before they were able to fly from Mitchel Field, Long Island, to San Diego, Calif. They made their hop in just ten minutes less than 27 hours, and that set a record.

Shirer, foreign correspondent, as he faces inquisitorial Clifton Fadiman in the "Information Please" session of Friday at 7:30 p. m., over WEAf. Shirer came to know the Hindu leader intimately in 1930 and 1931 and admires him greatly.

Vice President Henry A. Wallace will take over the role of master of ceremonies on the "Listen America" program Friday at 9:30 p. m., on WEAf, with Gloria Swanson as guest star.

In answer to requests for more Gilbert and Sullivan music, the Cities Service Concert Orchestra under Dr. Frank Black will present selections from "Pinafore" during the broadcast on Friday at 7 p. m., over WEAf. The famous Broadway success, "Death Takes a Holiday," will be the Friday offering in the "Great Moments From Great Plays" series over WABC at 8 p. m. Charles Martin will adapt the play, which was later a hit motion picture, for radio and will direct the all-star cast. "Death Takes a Holiday," written by Alberto Cassells, was a starring vehicle for Philip Merivale and Rose Hobart and after the long Broadway run, was popular on the road and with resident stock companies all over the U. S.
