

Mother Of Submarine Victim To Appear On Radio Program

Hero Of Penitentiary Break Also Scheduled To Speak On "We The People" Broadcast

Mrs. Elizabeth Van Haus, of Lawrence, Nebraska, mother of a crew-member of the ill-fated submarine O-9, and Deputy Sheriff W. E. Alexander, hero of the recent jail-break at the Oklahoma State penitentiary, will be among the guests of Burgess Meredith on "We, The People" over WABC at 8 p. m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Van Haus, the mother of three sons, will tell how her youngest boy, aged 17, recently applied to her for permission to join the Navy, despite the fact that her first born Bernard met a tragic death aboard the O-9. Another brother is also in the naval forces.

"Dean" Tom Wallace, guide and mentor of "College Humor," will turn up with two brand new helpers on his program, Tuesday, at 9:30 p. m. over WEAJ.

No. 1 find is Songstress Mary Ann Mercer, Saginaw, Mich., beauty who comes of the campus from a night club engagement in New Jersey. Mary Ann will sing "I Guess I'll Have to Dream the Rest."

Find No. 2 will be Hipper-Dipper Harris, All-American water boy, who will be impersonated by Robert Jeddison, talented stogie, linguist and character actor.

Bob Strong and his orchestra will present "Just a Little Bit South of North Carolina," "You and I," and "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny."

Four radio directors will face a team of radio actresses in a match of wits on "Battle of the Sexes," Tuesday at 8:00 p. m. over WEAJ.

John Connolly, one of two missing brother and sister heirs, will guest on the Are You A Missing Heir program, Tuesday at 7:00 p. m. over WABC, to claim the estate of his sister, Miss Lucy Connolly, who died in New York City on Jan. 7th. John and his sister, Mrs. Mary Perty, will share in the $2175 estate left by Lucy, but because of Mary's declining age (she's more than 85 years old) only John will appear on the program.

LONG TRIP ENDS IN CRASH NEAR DESTINATION

(Special To The Lima News)

ST. MARYS, Aug. 19—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter who started east last Friday from Santa Monica, Calif., in response to word of the death of Mrs. Hunter's father, O. L. Botkin, of St. Marys, were within 20 miles of their destination Monday when they met with an accident. Six miles west of Celina the car left the highway on a double S curve, crashed thru a guard rail and struck a tree.

The Hunters were driving thru with Mrs. Grant Lawrence of Santa Monica, her mother, 14-year-old sister and brother, Jack Cosgrove, of Buffalo, N. Y. It was Jack Cosgrove's car and Hun-
