

Two Hecklers To Pounce On Benny Sunday Evening

Moylan Sisters To Offer Requested Numbers
On Vocal Program; Southworth Scheduled

Not one, but two, of radio comedian Jack Benny's most persistent hecklers will go "Behind the Mike" on Sunday at 3:30 p. m. over WJZ further to torment the hapless Jack.

The non-respecters of Benny are Eddie Anderson, better known as "Rochester" and the comedian's audiciously indolent valet and chauffeur, and Sam Hearn, who, as "Schlepperman" has convulsed millions with his zany dialect and wisecracks.

The classic "Humoresque" and the popular folk favorite, "Short-nin' Bread," are among the specially requested songs to be sung by the Moylan Sisters, radio's captivating young harmony team, during the broadcast Sunday at 4 p. m. over WJZ.

Billy Southworth, manager of those high-flying Cardinals, will drop hints on how to aggravate a Brooklyn Dodger when he appears as guest on Bill Stern's Sports Newsreel of the Air on Sunday at 8:45 p. m. over WJZ.

"The Wall of Death," an eerie mystery involving a British Army Post in India and a strange curse that took certain calls for 50 years, is the "Inner Sanctum Mystery" to be presented Sunday at 7:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Swing, with Artie Shaw in the star role, takes possession of "Star Spangled Theatre" on Sunday at 7 p. m. over WJZ.

For this occasion, Artie, the master of the clarinet, is cast in a straight dramatic role. But, in addition, he will be spotted for several solo interludes during which he'll demonstrate his mastery of the reeds. The opus is entitled "Pied Piper of Swing" and has been adapted for radio by Irving Strouse from a magazine story by Hal Kantor.

"Uncle Sam's Weapons in the Economic War" will be the subject of the University of Chicago Round Table program Sunday. The WEAF broadcast will be heard at 1:30 p. m.

DEFENSE CLASS PLANNED

MINSTER, Aug. 23 — Courses of instruction in connection with the national defense program will be offered at Minster high school starting Sept. 2, School Supt. F. J. Behrns announced. A general carpenter course will be given first, and metal working, electricity and auto mechanics will be taught later.
