

Allan Jones Will Be Guest Of Frank Morgan Broadcast

Hollywood Musical Comedy Star To Be Heard At 7 P. M. Thursday; Elmer Davis Returning
To Air After Vacation

Allan Jones, the Hollywood musical comedy star, will be the guest of Frank Morgan, John Conte and Meredith Willson's orchestra when the program returns to the air after a two month summer furlough, Thursday at 7 p. m.

Elmer Davis, outstanding news analyst, will return from a vacation in Connecticut Thursday and will resume his nightly broadcasts over WABC at 7:55 p. m.

Edna May Oliver's radio talent as developed in her first guest appearance on the Rudy Vallee-John Barrymore program was so effective that she has been signed for at least one appearance a month on the show for the remainder of the year. The seasoned character actress and comedienne of the movies will be heard on the program for the second time in the WEAF broadcast Thursday at 9 p. m.

The story of the writing of the Constitution of the United States and the stormy situation which centered around Thomas Jefferson during that period will be dramatized on "Helms of Liberty," Thursday at 5:30 p. m. over WEAF.

Henry Aldrich becomes a fugitive from literature and practically puts the Centerville Public Library out of business during the Aldrich Family broadcast over WEAF Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

The Aldrich Family, stars Ezra Stone and Harry von Zell as the announcer.

STATE EXAMINERS CHECK RECORDS OF TREASURER

(Columbus News Bureau)

KENTON, Sept. 1—Enrl H. Dixon of Columbus, examiner from the state bureau of inspection, and John D'Arcy, sales tax examiner, are in the Hardin co. treasurer's office for a few days, making the routine check-up necessary with the change of office.

Dr. W. D. Comps, Kenton Republican, took over the office Tuesday. He defeated John P. Siemon of Pleasant-tp, incumbent, last November at the election.

OHIO

30c

10

6 P. M.

LAST 2 DAYS!

ABBOTT & COSTELLO

In the Laugh Sensation

"Hold That Ghost"

Starts SATURDAY