

W. C. Fields Set For Scrap With McCarthy On Program

Special Guards Set To Search Comedian For Concealed Weapon As Old Enemies Renew Feud At 7 P. M. Via WEAF

Charlie McCarthy will have special guards posted in the Hollywood studio during the broadcast Sunday to search Comedian W. C. Fields for concealed weapons when he arrives to put in a guest appearance and renew his feud of long-standing with Bergen's brash and impish youngster. The show will go on WEAF at 7 p. m.

On his final Sunday Evening Summer Hour program Sunday, for which he is guest conductor, Meredith Willson will baton two of his recent compositions, "Two in Love," a popular number, and "Never Feel too Weary to Pray," a spiritual from his music for Sam Goldwyn's film, "The Little Foxes." The Sunday Evening Summer Hour is heard over WABC at 8 p. m.

Eleanor Holm, former champion Olympic swimmer and wife of Billy Rose, will be the guest of Bill Stern on his "Sports Newsreel of the Air" on Sunday at 8:45 p. m. over WJZ.

The beautiful Irish melody, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," will be sung by Gladys Swarthout and the interesting story of how Thomas Moore came to write this ever-popular song will be told by Deems Taylor on the Sunday broadcast of The Family Hour at 4 p. m. over WABC.

"Death Goes to a Party," strange tale of a hitch-hiking corpse, will be the "Inner Sanctum Mystery" offering Sunday at 7:30 p. m. over WJZ. Ralph Forbes, popular stage and screen actor, will be heard as the wandering wraith bent on having a little fun.

Jean Dickenson and Vivian Della Chiesa, sopranos, and Frank Munn, tenor, will join voices in selections from "The Bohemian Girl" by Balfe during the "American Album of Familiar Music" Sunday over WEAF at 8:30 p. m. The program also features Gustav Haenschen's orchestra, Bertrand Hirsch, violinist, and the Buckingham Choir.

Great Stage Show Booked At The Ohio

Lima will have the pleasure of seeing the finest show of the decade when the "Crazy Show" comes to town Thursday and Friday, Sept. 25-26 on the stage of the Ohio theatre. This zany nut-fest filled with top headliners and a cast of merry-mad maniacs is not just a stage show but rather in reality a musical variety show, filled with side splitting laughs, howls and crazy situations.

Heading the show are those two mighty moguls of mirth, Shaw and Lee, world famous for their comedy on stage, screen and radio. Their latest picture has not been released as yet but they will

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

Eastern Standard P. M.—Subtract One Hour for CST., 2 Hrs. for MT.

Daylight Saving Time One Hour Later (Changes in programs as listed due to