

Shakespeare To Be Ambushed On Eddie Cantor Broadcast

Bard Of Avon To Be Target For Gladys Swarthout, Maurice Evans And Comic During Program Wednesday Evening

Shakespeare will be ambushed from all sides when Gladys Swarthout of the Metropolitan Opera, Maurice Evans of Broadway, and Eddie Cantor of Eldridge-st take pot shots at the Bard of Avon on the banjo-eyed comic's "Time to Smile" program over WEAFF Wednesday at 9 p. m. Evans will be making his second appearance of the season on the program.

An innocent man, convinced by a gang of crooks that he is a murderer, then a brilliant bit of scientific research and deduction by the D. A.'s office are the elements in "The Case of the Blackmail Plot," title of the "Mr. District Attorney" program for Wednesday, at 9:30 p. m., over WEAFF.

The title role is played by Jay Jostyn, with Vicki Vola and Len Doyle as aids, Scripts are by Finis Farr; Edward Byron directs.

Messrs. Rudy Valee and John Barrymore figure that Prof. Kay Kyser of the "College of Musical Knowledge" has been embarrassing "stodents" coast-to-coast about long enough, and are preparing to crack down on him just before the last of his own Pacific Coast series and his start back to New York.

Kay will be a guest on the program of Thursday, at 10:00 p. m., over WEAFF and for that rare occasion the boys have cooked up a sketch in which their guest will be a "stodent" -- and they, of course, professors.

Florence George, star of the concert stage, will be escorted by Melvyn Douglas and Jackie Cooper, in a visit to the "Kraft Music Hall" Thursday, at 9:00 p. m., over WEAFF. The three have been frequent guests of Host Don Ameche at the broadcasts.

Tonsorial troubles are a headache to Henry when he is sent back to the barber's twice for revision of trim in "The Aldrich Family" over WEAFF Thursday, at 8:30 p. m.
