

FDR, Willkie in Broadcast

President Roosevelt and Wendell L. Willkie will make their first joint broadcast tonight when they address the nation in behalf of the Community Mobilization for Human Needs. The program will be aired at 9:30 by WIBA and other stations of the three major networks.

Other participants will be Tom K. Smith, chairman of the 1941 Mobilization; the Aldrich family, and Jack Smith's orchestra.

Tonight's other attractions, classified for your convenience:

Drama

8 p. m.—Playhouse (WBBM): Eddie Cantor in "June Moon."

8:30 p. m. — First Nighter (WBBM): "Woman Buyer."

9 p. m. — Wings of Destiny (WMAQ): soap bubbles and planes . . . Hollywood Premiere (WBBM): Ruth Hussey and Robert Young in "Married Bachelor."

Discussion

6:15 p. m. — Radio Magio (WENR): radio sets wired by printing presses.

8:30 p. m. — America First Charles A. Lindbergh at Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Music

7 p. m.—Concert Hour (WIBA): with Lucille Manners; "Marchaire," Tosti; "In the Tavern," Niccode; "Gopak," Moussorgsky; plus Grantland Rice's sports selections.

9 p. m. — Symphonic Hour (WIND): "Spring" symphony, Schumann; "Francesca da Rimini," Tchaikowsky.

Sports

6:30—Meet the Team (WIBA): Art Bramhall interviews Ted Damos.

7:30 p. m. — Roundy (WIBA): interviews Conrad Jennings, Marquette coach.

Quiz

7:30 p. m.—Information Please (WMAQ): Vincent Gomez, John Kieran, Franklin P. Adams, Oscar Levant, and Clifton Fadman.

Variety

6:30 p. m.—Al Pearce (WBBM): returns to the air with Andy Devine, Elmer Blurt, others.

7 p. m. — Kate Smith Hour (WBBM): back on the air with Merle Oberon, and Tommy Dorsey, guest stars; Johnny Burke, Nan Rae, and Maude Davis, comedians; Tommy Tucker's singers; Jack Miller's orchestra.