

Burns, Allen To Visit Market Where Vocalist Is Employed

Brooklyn Woman And 17-Year-Old Son To Appear On Missing Heir Program To Claim Estate

Gracie Allen attempts to relieve her vocal discovery, Jimmy Cash, of his duties at a grocery store, and succeeds in making a "counter offensive" during the second broadcast of the new Burns and Allen series, Tuesday, over WEAF at 7:30 p. m.

Irene McCormick Wilson, of Brooklyn, and her 17-year old son, William Wilson, student at a Peekskill military school, will appear on the Are You A Missing Heir program Tuesday, 8:00 p. m. over WABC, to claim the ten thousand dollar estate of their husband and father, William T. Wilson, killed in the Bowery, Dec. 22nd, 1940, when he stepped out of a taxicab and was hit by another car. Wilson was on his way to mass when the accident occurred. He had been estranged from his wife and son for more than fourteen years. His story was broadcast on the Heirs program Oct. 7th and the missing legatees made claim the next day.

Harriet Hilliard, one of the stars of the Red Skelton show, will sing "I Don't Want to Set the World on Fire" during the broadcast Tuesday, at 10:30 p. m., over WEAF.

Bob Hope will settle down to broadcasting from Hollywood with his WEAF program of Tuesday, at 10:00 p. m., after gallivanting around the east in the interest of his one and only book, "They Got Me Covered", a sort of autobiography in the raw.

Phil Baker, Kenny Baker, Wynn Murray, Claude Rains and Fay Wray top the list of guest stars for the third "Treasury Hour" program Tuesday, from 8.00 to 9:00 p. m., over WJZ.
