

Helen Hayes Will Present Epic Of 'The West' Sunday

"Let The Hurricane Roar" Scheduled For Broadcast; Jack Benny Runs Into Travel Troubles

Helen Hayes has decided that "Let the Hurricane Roar" typifies the real spirit of America more than any other contemporary novel, so the actress will repeat her dramatic performance of Rose Wilder Lane's inspiring epic of the west Sunday, over WABC at 8 p. m.

Trans-Continental travel, which has become matter-of-fact to the average citizen, develops unexpected complications when harassed Jack Benny attempts to move his wacky gang from New York to Hollywood as will be revealed in the broadcast over WEAF Sunday at 7 p. m.

Barbara Stanwyck has a good reason for volunteering to appear for a second time on the WABC "Screen Guild Theatre." She'll share honors with her equally famous husband, Robert Taylor, on the broadcast Sunday in a radio version of the screen success, "Nothing Sacred."

"Hell Is Where You Find It," is the intriguing title of the "Inner Sanctum Mystery" story to star Burgess Meredith on WJZ Sunday at 8:30 p. m. Meredith will be heard as a vile person who stops at nothing to achieve his ends. This is a far cry from his role in the current picture, "Tom, Dick and Harry." Raymond Edward Johnson will be heard as host again and background music

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19

Eastern Standard P. M.—Subtract One Hour for CST., 2 Hrs. for MT.

(Changes in programs as listed due to last minute network corrections) will be supplied by Lew White at the organ.

Lansing Hatfield, young Metropolitan Opera baritone, will appear as a guest for the second time on the Andre Kostelanetz "Pause That Refreshes" program over WABC Sunday at 4:30 p. m. He'll sing "Who Is Sylvia?" and "Hark, the Vesper Hymn is Stealing." Kostelanetz and his 45-piece orchestra will be heard in Meredith Willson's "You and I" and Tchaikowsky's "B-flat Minor Concerto." Albert Spalding, violinist, is master of ceremonies.
