

Famous Jury Trials Will Present Unusual Murder

Navy Will Have Charge Of Treasury Hour On Tuesday; Gracie Has George Near Boiling Point

"Famous Jury Trials" presents one of the most unusual murder cases in its dossier—a case in which all witnesses against the defendant themselves possessed strong motives for committing a murder—on Tuesday at 9 p. m., over WJZ.

Ahoy, listeners! Uncle Sam's Navy is taking over the "Treasury Hour" on WJZ Tuesday at 8 p. m.

And Carmen Miranda, the Brazilian bamballoola, is taking over the Navy that night.

It's all in the nature of an advance observance of Navy Day, officially Oct. 27. Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox and the U. S. Marine Band will be heard on the program from Washington.

Excitement over Gracie Allen's efforts to make grocery clerk

Jimmy Cash the vocalist on the "Burns and Allen" show again raises George's blood pressure to the danger point during WEAF broadcast Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m.

Sultry-voiced Martha Tilton will sing "By-O By-U" and the King's Men will sing their own arrangement of "Simple Simon" on the Fibber McGee and Molly program Tuesday 9:30 p. m. via WEAF. Fibber McGee, Molly and their neighbors will be on hand for another comedy episode from Wistful Vista.
