

Price Control To Be Topic On Town Meeting Broadcast

Leon Henderson, Sen. Taft, General Motors Head
And Congressman Gore Will Discuss
Problem Wednesday

Leon Henderson, Price Control Administrator and Director of OPACS, will head the lineup of speakers on "America's Town Meeting of the Air," Thursday, when the subject for discussion will be "How Can We Stop Rising Prices?"

Sen. Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, James D. Mooney, vice president of General Motors Corp., and Rep. Albert Gore of Tennessee will complete the panel of the forum, which will be aired at 9:15 p. m. over WJZ. George V. Denny, Jr., will be moderator.

"Penthouse Party" will be the meeting place for some rapid fire repartee on Wednesday, when Ilka Chase of the humorous and biting tongue takes on Comedy, in the form of Frank Fay, and Glamor, in the shape of Laise Rainer. The program will be heard at 9:30 p. m., over WJZ.

A math, history and spelling whiz at 15. Mary Clare McHugh, of Providence High School, Chicago, will be a newcomer to the current "Quiz Kids" board of experts, Wednesday, at 8 p. m., over WJZ. Mary Clare was heard on the show twice during its early days on the air.

Whitey (The Duke of Paducah) Ford, master of ceremonies and All-America draw-back, will dedicate a discussion of "football" to the Edward Flanagan Boys Town football team during the "Plantation Party" broadcast Wednesday, at 8:30 p. m., over WJZ. Ford was royally entertained by Father Flanagan's boys during a recent personal appearance tour.

Eddie Cantor will present a Herbert Marshall you didn't see either in "The Letter", or any of his other many screen triumphs when the banjoeyed comic transforms the dignified movie star into a comedian on "Time to Smile" over WEAFF Wednesday, at 9:00 p. m.
