

Lionel And John Barrymore Together On Vallee Program

Brothers To Make Fifth Joint Appearance; Bing Crosby To Rejoin His Show On Thursday Evening

Lionel Barrymore will share guest honors with Tizzie Lish Thursday at 10 p. m. over WEAF when he appears on the Rudy Vallee program with his brother, John. The program will mark the fifth appearance of the brothers together as they weave a riotous story around the romantic life of The Great Profile.

Bing Crosby, home from a horse-buying expedition to South America, will return to his program on the WEAF broadcast, Thursday, at 9 p. m. after an absence of three months. Rise Stevens, pretty young Metropolitan Opera star, will be a guest of honor at the homecoming.

"Sonny," George Wilby's nephew. For "Sonny" edged George into the poach palace and thereby hangs a tale which will be presented dramatically on "Uncle Walter's Dog House," Friday at 9:30 p. m., over WEAF as "Halloween Surprise" or "Accident on Youth."

By adroit handling, Henry Aldrich manages to keep in line for an inheritance, and retain his girl, too, when dates with his Uncle John and the beautiful Deedee conflict during "The Aldrich Family" over WEAF Thursday, at 8:30 p. m.

Baby (Spooks) Snooks, known without the burnt cork as Fanny Bruce, will move Halloween ahead a day when she steadies a shaking, hexing finger long enough to break a pumpkin over Daddy's head in another daddy-daughter maelstrom of mirth on the Coffee Time program, Thursday over WEAF at 8 p. m.
