

Phil to Broadcast From WGN to Air Premier of B

Claudia Morgan had the unique experience of having her portrait drawn by an artist for whom she did not pose. McClelland Barclay heard "Against the Storm," sketched his impression of the heroine by listening to her. Miss Morgan, who plays the role, finds an uncanny resemblance. "Against the Storm" is heard over NBC on Monday through Friday at 2 p. m.

Discussion talks and a Hollywood premier will headline tonight's radio programs.

Phil La Follette will be heard from Washington at 9:15 p. m. through WBBM, speaking to chairmen of state and local chapters of the American First organization. He will talk on "What Next for America."

Also at 9:15 but over WMAQ, Rep. Henry Jackson (D., Wash.) will be heard on "Price Control." At 9:45 p. m. over WBBM, the People's Platform will be aired from St. Louis, mirroring midwest political sentiment.

At 10:15 p. m. Herman Habicht will speak over WMAQ on "Can Russia Hold Out?"

The Hollywood premiere broadcast at 8 p. m. through WGN will have Bing Crosby, Marty Martin, Rochester, and Carolyn Lee in short skits from their new picture, "The Birth of the Blues."
