

Marlene Dietrich Kieman H on Airwa

Marlene Dietrich will turn comedienne tonight when she gueststars with Eddie Cantor at through WMAQ. The "Mad Russian" also will try his two-cent worth in making love. Also at but through WBBM, Fred Allen will have John "Know All the Answers" Kieran as his guest.

◇ ◇ ◇

Other highlight programs for tonight, classified:

Variety

7:30 p. m. — Plantation Part (WMAQ): a discourse on hunting by the Duke of Paducah on "Women in the Field are Totally Unreliable."

8:30 p. m. — Penthouse Part (WENR): with Willie Howard and John Buckmaster, comedians guests.

◇ ◇ ◇

Discussion

7 p. m. — Madison Community Centers (WIBA): Jim Terzian, recreation department staff member, leads discussion of music with Katherine Jones and R. B. Colman, instructors in group singing, and Elmer Gottschalk, instructor in instrumental music and orchestra.

8 p. m. — America First (WIBA): John Cudahy, former ambassador to Belgium, speaker

9:15 p. m. — Public Affairs (WBBM): Rep. Emuel Celler (D., N. Y.) on current issues.

◇ ◇ ◇

Musical

9 p. m. — American Melody Hour (WENR): with Vivian Dell Chiesa, soprano, Conrad Thibault, baritone, and Frank Munn, tenor

◇ ◇ ◇

Drama

6:30 p. m. — Meet Mr. Meek (WBBM): the big game and football star quits.

7 p. m. — Big Town (WBBM) "40,000 Lives," saved by the crusading managing editor.

Thin Man (WMAQ): "Matched Makeup for Madame," Thin Man's wife solves the crime while hubby sleeps.

7:30 p. m. — Dr. Christlan (WBBM): the fifth year for Jean Hersholt in the role in "Grandma-Streamlined."

8:30 p. m. — Mr. District Attorney (WMAQ): a noted conductor-composer is slain in "Murder with Music."

8:45 p. m. — Danger Is My Business (WGN): the story of Irene Kuhn, newspaperwoman of the Orient.

◇ ◇ ◇

Sports

6:30 p. m. — Meet The Team (WIBA): Art Bramhall presents Ed Riordan, Wisconsin guard from Rhinelander.

10 p. m. — Hockey (WENR) interview with Paul Thompson, manager of the Black Hawks.

◇ ◇ ◇