

Constance Bennett Will Be Guest On Al Pearce's Show

Actress To Swap Quips With Comedian; Story Of First Winner Of Cheney Award For Valor To Be Told

Constance Bennett, newest addition to radio's glorified stooge ranks, will trade quips with Al Pearce and his Gang Friday at 7:30 p. m. over WABC. Margaret Lenhard will sing with Lou Bragg's orchestra. Andy Devine will supply comedy relief.

The story of the first winner of the Cheney Award for Valor will be dramatized on "Wings of Destiny," Friday at 10 p. m. over WEAJ.

The winner was Master Sergeant Harry Chapman, who distinguished himself when the ill-fated dirigible Roma, crashed near Norfolk, Va., Feb. 21, 1922. Chapman was a passenger on the ship.

Glamorous Paulette Goddard and comedian Bob Hope will co-star in a radio adaption of their newest comedy hit, "Nothing But the Truth," on the Hollywood Premier program Friday, over WABC. Story centers around Hope's bet with his father-in-law that he will tell nothing but the truth for twenty-four hours, a bet which leads to some amusing and embarrassing situations for the comedian. Felix Mills' music will be heard.

Young love, detectives, pawn shops and mysterious strangers all flit thru "Uncle Walter's Dog House", Friday during the broadcast at 9:30 p. m. over WEAJ. The drama, presented by Uncle Walter (Tom Wallace), deals with Pat Sweeney, a traffic officer. He dreams of becoming a great detective to the unconcealed mirth of his wife, Nancy.

Frank Munn will offer the popular "City Called Heaven" by Warren as his first selection on "Waltz Time", Friday over WEAJ at 9:00 p. m. Assisted by chorus, Munn also will sing, "This Love of Mine" and "So Ends Our Night."
