

Dirigible Expert To Share Spotlight On Radio Tuesday

Charlie McCarthy And Edgar Bergen Return Visits
Of Fibber McGee And Molly
At 9:30 P. M.

Captain Charles E. Rosendahl, U.S.N., expert on lighter-than-air-craft; George Ford, son of the manager of the Ford's theatre in which Lincoln was assassinated; Sergeant Edward F. Younger, who selected the Unknown Soldier, and Under Secretary of Agriculture Paul Appleby, recently returned from a tour of England, will be among the guests on "We, The People" when Director Eddie Dowling moves the entire program to Washington, D. C., for a special broadcast over WABC at 9 p. m., Tuesday.

Grace Allen has arranged a "ducky" adventure which will be recounted when she and George Burns face the microphone for their broadcast Tuesday over WEAF at 7:30 p. m.

This neighborhood will go bug-eyed, come Tuesday, Nov. 11, when Charlie McCarthy brings his high hat, monocle and Edgar Bergen to this address for a return to Fibber McGee and Molly. The Wistful Vistans were guests of McCarthy and Bergen on their Sunday program of Nov. 2. The Nov. 11 get-together will be broadcast over WEAF at 9:30 p. m.

Red Skelton, frained down to the finest syllable, will demonstrate sundry sorts of speech making during his broadcast Tuesday at 10:30 p. m., over WEAF.

As a change from its customary fare of murder committed mostly for passion or greed, "Famous Jury Trials" at 9:00 p. m., over WJZ will present a trial for criminal negligence that grew out of a building collapse.
