

Ginny Simms Will Be Heard On Vallee's Show Thursday

Singing Star To Venture Into Veritable Madhouse; Bing Crosby Books Walter Huston As Guest

Ginny Simms, until recently singing star of Kay Kyser's "College of Musical Knowledge" will venture onto the screwball Rudy Vallee-John Barrymore stage Thursday, as a guest actress in the program's weekly play. She will be heard with Rudy, John and Joan Davis, over WEAF at 10 p. m. this being an extra appearance of Joan Davis over her scheduled four consecutive appearances.

Henry and Homer take over Willie's paper route, and succeed in delivering everything but the news, during "The Aldrich Family," starring Ezra Stone, over WEAF Thursday, 8:30 p. m.

Walter Huston, star of vaudeville, stage, and screen, whose checkered career has led him from bit parts in a road show, to managing a power plant, and on to become one of the dramatic greats, will join the conferees of the Music Hall when it goes on the air at 9 p. m. Thursday over WEAF. Also invited to join Bing Crosby's exuberant group is Carol Landis, young blonde movie star, whose curves and curls have garnered her a mountain of fan mail and who currently has been appearing in "Moon Over Miami." As an added attraction, Bing has announced a surprise guest.

Metropolitan Opera Star Lauritz Melchior is guest singer on "America Preferred" over WOR Thursday, at 9:30 p. m. Also on the program are Alfred Wallenstein's orchestra with Deems Taylor as narrator. Music embraces "March of Homage" by Griegg, "Aria Ujarak's from Greelandische Opera Kaddara," Morton Gould's "First Movement of the American Symphonette" and a group of three solos by Mr. Melchior. "There Shall Be Music When You Come," "Torema" and "The Flag."

Baby Snooks (Fanny Brice) will brew up a new melange of mischief to dish out for her long-suffering Daddy (Hanley Stafford) in another filibustering session against respectful obedience on the Coffee Time program, Thursday at 8 p. m. over WEAF.

Maudie has never quite known the embarrassment she suffers thruout her latest chapter of "Maudie's Diary" titled "Practically a Broken Woman" to be presented Thursday at 7:30 p. m. over WARC. Nor has her diary known such fluttery going-on as when Davy, big-hearted, fuddle-witted Davy decides to share our heroine with a rival.

DARTS TOO PROMISCUOUS

MEKEESPORT, Pa., Dec. 4 — (UP) — A cut-rate sale of darts has left in its wake many a sore spot among the citizens of this community. When a local merchant decided to cut the price of the feathered weapons from five cents to a penny, business boomed. The result was promiscuous target practice with citizens as the targets.
