

Veronica Lake To Be Guest On Crosby's Show Thursday

Paul Robeson, Great Negro Baritone, And Robert Coote, Of Royal Canadian Air Force, Also Slated To Appear

The girl with the most talked about head of hair in the nation—Veronica Lake by name puts in a guest appearance on the Crosby show Thursday at 9 p. m. over WEAJ. Slated to appear with Miss Lake is Paul Robeson, great Negro baritone, and Robert Coote of the Royal Canadian Air Force, an old favorite at the Hall.

Bing's musical contributions for the evening will consist of the current favorite "Chattanooga Choo Choo," "Good-bye Little Darling," "Memory," "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," "Who Calls," and "Humpty Dumpty Heart" and a duet with Connie called "Don't Let Julia Fool Ya." Connie will solo with "Elmer's Tune" and "Everything I Love."

Frank (Matterhorn) Morgan may meet his Nemesis at last when he undertakes to explain a few of the frostier points of mountain-climbing to the young American explorer, Paul Petzoldt in a shivering saunter thru the cloud-capped regions of advanced braggadocio on Thursday at 8:00 p. m. over WEAJ.

Henry Aldrich inadvertently turns Santa Claus for his friend Homer's pretty cousin, and squanders his Christmas savings for one brief goodnight kiss in "The Aldrich Family," starring Ezra Stone, over WEAJ Thursday at 8:30 p. m.

A Spanish version of "Chattanooga Choo Choo" will be sung by Margo on the "Cugat Rumba Revue" on WEAJ Thursday at 7:30 p. m. In duet with Bert Parks, Margo will also sing "A Fine Romance." Xavier Cugat's orchestra will feature Latin-American arrangements of "Miserlou," "You Are My Sunshine," "A Gay Ranchero" and "La Cucaracha." Carmen Castillo vocalizes a special arrangement of "Moonlight Masquerade" and Miguelito Valdes will do the Afro-Cuban numbers, "Se Fue En Africa" and "Cinco Hijos." The Cugat Chorus is spotlighted in "Marría La O."

Jack Oakie, Lionel Barrymore and Joan Davis will combine with Rudy Vallee to present a pigskin opus, "Foot-Bowl Game" during the Vallee program Thursday at 10 p. m. over WEAJ.

BUCKLAND

BUCKLAND, Dec. 11 — M. F. Baker, local livestock dealer, accompanied by Mrs. Baker, attended the International livestock show in Chicago on Wednesday. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker, a sister and brother of Baker's.

Thirty-five neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Brookhart east of Buckland on Friday evening for a farewell surprise party. Mr. and Mrs. Brookhart are leaving the farm where they have lived the past 13 years and moving to Buckland in their home which they
