

Dame Game

7:50 Tonight

Wisconsin will meet Notre Dame tonight and WIBA will start broadcasting the basketball game at 7:50 with Art Bramhall at the microphone. The Badger cagers are seeking their 18th successive victory.

Musical

8:30 p. m. — Wayne King (WBBM): selections from Victor Herbert's "Babes in Toyland."

8 p. m.—Theater of Air (WGN): with Marion Claire, Igor Gorin, and Attilio Baggiore in "Pagliacci."

8:30 p. m. — NBC Symphony (WCFL): with Arturo Toscanini conducting. Program: Smetana's "The Moldau," Barber's "Adagio for Strings," and Dvorak's "New World Symphony."

Drama

7 p. m. — Knickerbocker Playhouse (WMAQ): "The Years Divide."

9:30 p. m.—Hot Copy (WMAQ): gambling in Sports.

Discussion

7 p. m. — World Peaceways (WIBA): a discussion on post-war problems.

8:45 p. m.—What Price Defense (WGN): interview with Floyd Odium, director of the division of contract distribution.

9:15 p. m. — Public Affairs (WBBM): Dr. James T. Shotwell on "America After the War."

9:30 p. m. — People's Platform (WBBM): discussion of freedom of speech.

Variety

8 p. m. — National Barn Dance (WLS): a weekend party.

Miscellaneous

7:30 p. m. — Hobby Lobby (WBBM): the hobbies of Walter Sewell, naturalist.