

WIBA to Air Badger-Marquette Cage Game at 8 Tonight

Interview

Ona Munson, star of Columbia network's "Big Town" broadcasts, sneaks away from the "Illustrated Press" office to get an exclusive interview with Santa. It seems to be a strange interview, too, for the way Santa is dishing out these fancy bundles indicates that the main question asked by interviewer Ona was: "What are you going to give me for Christmas—and now?"

Frequencies

WIBA 1310 WGN 720

Seeking its 19th successive cage victory, Wisconsin will invade Milwaukee tonight, meeting Marquette at 8. Station WIBA will air the game direct from Milwaukee with Art Bramhall doing the play-by-play.

Other highlight broadcasts for tonight follow, classified:

Musical

8 p. m.—Chicago Theater of Air (WGN): Marion Claire and Attilio Baggio in the leading roles of the operetta, "Babes in Toyland" with Ray Charles.

8:45 p. m. — Saturday Night Serenade (WBBM): "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" by Jessica Dragonette.

Discussion

6 p. m. — Review of the World (WMAQ): with Upton Close, William Hillman and Earl Godwin.

9:30 p. m. — People Platform (WBBM): "Religion's Role in War Time."

Drama

7 p. m. — Knickerbocker Playhouse (WBBM): Thomas Brynes' "The Challenge," a lawyer returns home for civic betterment.

7:30 p. m.—The Bishop and the Gargoyle (WMAQ): "The Copper Sioux," the last of the series.

9:30 p. m.—Hot Copy (WMAQ): a phony crystal gazer predicts.

Sports

9 p. m.—Bill Stern (WMAQ): with tennis ace Don Budge.

Variety

8 p. m.—National Barn Dance (WLS): Christmas fun and music.

Miscellaneous

7:30 p. m. — Hobby Lobby (WBBM): with Jack Dempsey heading the guest list.