Performers from all over the country are rallying for the national Red Cross program which will be held on WEAJ Wednesday from 9 to 10 p. m.

Eddie Cantor will be master of ceremonies and will have his entire troupe with him in addition to a guest, Deanna Durbin. Others to be heard are Fibber McGee and Mollie, Ezra Stone and "The Aldrich Family" in a skit by Clifford Goldsmith, Loretta Young, Irving Berlin and Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York City. The list is still incomplete, with other names still to be heard from.

The Fred Waring group will give an all Glee club program of carols on Christmas eve at 7 p. m. over WEAJ. Every one in the group — featured soloists and instrumentalists — will be heard with the choir singing traditional carols. The arrangements for the choir have been prepared by Roy Ringwald, Californian who is Fred Waring's special Glee club arranger.

For the second year in succession, Ilka Chase will act as narrator in the presentation of a condensed dramatization of Evaldene Stein's book, "The Christmas Porringer" on the Penthouse Party program, Christmas Eve at 9:30 p. m. over WJZ. Vaughn Monroe's quartet and other members of the program will provide the play's choral background, Yvette, the program's songstress and the singing maestro, Vaughn Monroe will both feature numbers in harmony with the Yuletide season and the program's theme.

The one item that listeners look forward to on Christmas day — Lionel Barrymore's portrayal of "Old Scrooge" from Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol"—will this year be presented on the Rudy Vallee program. The dramatic playlet will be heard Thursday at 10 p. m. over WEAJ.

A prominent cast, drawn from the film and radio studios, will support Lionel. Vallee will be the only regular member of the Thursday evening program to appear. He will sing Christmas carols with the Sportsmen's quartet.
