

Fred Waring Will Present Service Songs On Program

Official Music Of All Branches Will Be Heard
During Broadcast Scheduled For 7 P. M.
Thursday Via WEAF

Official songs of the United States Army, Navy, Coast Guard and Marine corps will make up the all-service program in Fred Waring's program at 7 p. m. Friday over WEAF. The Pennsylvanians' huge glee club will sing the songs to the accompaniment of the band.

At the same time, the band and glee club will present for the first time a new song written by Waring for the United States Navy Air corps at the request of aviation cadets at the Pensacola Naval Air station.

Kate Smith will act as representative of the people of the United States when the singing star pays tribute to President Franklin D. Roosevelt by presenting a cavalcade of important events in the life of the chief executive during Kate's "Variety Hour," Friday, over WABC at 8:00 p. m.

"Elsa Maxwell's Party Line," making its debut Friday at 10 p. m., over WJZ, will find the noted party-giver having fun with Graham McNamee, but she will also disclose for the first time a story about how the Duke of Windsor was offered a plan to split politics in England wide open. Comedy is to be a highlight of the new series.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 2

Eastern Standard P. M.—Subtract One Hour for CST., 2 Hrs. for MT.

Cornelia Otis Skinner, survivor of three tough grillings by Clifton Fadiman at the "Information Please" experts' table, is coming back for more on Friday at 8:30 p. m., over WEAF. The other guest, Deems Taylor, music composer and critic and occasional master of ceremonies on this program, will mark up his twentieth visit on the answering side of the table.

BEAVERDAM

BEAVERDAM, Jan. 2 — Marion Downey has enlisted in the U. S. army and left for camp Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Good-