

Cugat Rhumba Review Will Be Inaugurated On Tuesday

Four Secretaries To Vic With Bosses On Quiz Program; Basil Rathbone Appears With Gracie

The love songs of Margo and Carmen Castillo, the Afro-Cuban melodies of Miguelito Valdez, and the music of Xavier Cugat will be broadcast Tuesday on the "Cugat Rhumba Revue" at 8:00 p. m., over WJZ.

The switch to WJZ will find the program format unchanged and the cast intact, including master of ceremonies Bert Parks, and it will continue to be shortwaved to Latin-America and rebroadcast in the Hawaiian Islands and the Philippines.

Now, four under-dogs will have their day. They are four secretaries, who have lain awake nights thinking up back-talk for the boss, and they will let off steam without running the chance of getting the sack. The fight will be heard by radio listeners from coast to coast during the "Battle of the Sexes," Tuesday at 9:00 p. m. over WEAF.

Frank Grunit and Julia Sanderson will call the punches, hand out rewards to the winners, and see that everything ends in peaceful accord.

Basil Rathbone, radio's Sherlock Holmes, helps Gracie Allen solve mysterious "Ducknapping" on the Burns and Allen broadcast, Tuesday, over WJZ at 7:30 p. m.
