

New Musical Program To Be Inaugurated On Wednesday

Series Will Be Heard From 10:15 To 10:45 Via WABC; "Mr. District Attorney" To Work On Jewel Thief

"Great Moments In Music," a new program presenting highlights from the world's best-loved operas with an all-star singing cast, will make its bow over WABC Wednesday from 10:15 to 10:45 p. m. To be broadcast every week at the same time, the cast and orchestra will present excerpts from one of the world's best known operas. "La Boheme," "Faust," "Tales of Hoffman," "Pagliacci," "La Tosca," "La Traviata," "The Daughter of the Regiment" and a long list of others are scheduled for microphone interpretation.

Arias, duets, trios, quartets, choral numbers and orchestral excerpts, representing the finest of each score, will be offered.

A jewel theft, complicated by murder, are the elements of "The Case of the Blood Ruby" which comes to you at 9:30 p. m. Wednesday on the "Mr. District Attorney" program of WEAF. A rare ruby is stolen; the thieves have a falling out; there is a chase that leads to the remote corners of the world--and ends in murder within a stone's throw from the "D. A.'s" office itself.

What the people of the United States are getting for the money they invest in defense bonds will be graphically and powerfully dramatized in the "Big Town" show starring Edward G. Robinson scheduled for Wednesday over WABC. Timely in character is the production entitled "What You're Getting For Your Money."

Rise Stevens, young contralto and cinema star who set the Metropolitan Opera Co. back on its heels when she declined its first bid, will be guest of Eddie Cantor on "Time to Smile" over the WEAF Wednesday at 9 p. m.

LIQUOR CHIEFS CHECK ABUSES

Industry Sets Up Inspectors To Aid States In Enforcement Work

NEW YORK, Jan. 7—(AP)—To "merit, assure and safeguard a favorable public opinion" of itself, the liquor industry is planning to set up squadrons of trained "inspectors" to assist state and local authorities in correcting any objectionable conditions arising from sale of its products.

From 22 states, representatives of the newly-formed Allied Liquor Industries, Inc., pledged a "vigorous campaign along two fronts." These aims, for which the group already has subscribed $260,000, are:

"To make sure that the industry deserves a favorable public opinion.

"To cooperate with military, civic and civilian defense authorities in dealing with conditions brought on by war."

LIMA YOUTH IS