

Tonight's Airwaves Tales of Hoffman'

Stella Andreeva, lyric soprano of the Metropolitan, and William Hain, American tenor, will make guest appearances on "Great Moments in Music" when excerpts from Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman," the story of three loves in the life of a poet, are presented. WMMB will air the broadcast at 9:15.

Other highlight programs for tonight follow, classified:

Civilian Defense

8:30 p. m.—Madison Recreation (WIBA): In dramatized and narrative form, John Q. Public's place in defense.

Drama

7 p. m. — Meet Mr. Meek (WBBM): a half-hour later.

7:30 p. m. — Dr. Christian (WBBM): Jean Hersholt in "Sleepy Pan," the story of a river panhandler.

8:30 p. m.—Mr. District Attorney (WMAQ): the Rip Van Winkle gangster goes back to work.

10:15 p. m. — Story Drama (WIBA): John Dos Passos' "The Camper at Kitty Hawk" and "U. S. A."

Variety

7:30 p. m. — Plantation Party (WMAQ): The Duke becomes an expert in winter sports.

8 p. m.—Eddie Cantor (WIBA): Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Carlos Romeros, tenor, guests.

Fred Allen (WBBM): with Dorothy Lamour.

Discussion

9:45 p. m.—U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce (WIBA): the winner of the distinguished service award is announced.

Quiz

7 p. m. — Quiz Kids (WLS): a three-way tie in scoring brings last week's gang back again.

Musical

6:15 p. m. — Lanny Ross (WBBM): an Irving Berlin cavalcade.

8 p. m.—Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street (WIBA): Henry Levine and Paul Laval plus swing ensembles.

12 p. m.—Music You Want (WENR): the "Nocturne" from Mendelssohn's "A Midsummer Night's Dream."