

to Portray Tonight

Edmund Gwenn, noted English actor, will impersonate Winston Churchill in the March of Time dramatization tonight at 7 through WLS. The reenactment of Churchill's life will commence with his student days and end with the prime minister's recent visit to Washington.

At 8 p. m. through WENR the American Town Meeting of the Air will present a forum on "What Basis for Unity Among the Americans?" with Ricardo Alfaro, former president of Panama, and John Gunther participating.

Other highlight programs for tonight follow, classified:

Variety

6:30 p. m. — Service With a Smile (WLS): entertainment by servicemen.

7 p. m. — Baby Snooks with Fannie Brice (WIBA): with Frank "Superman" Morgan.

8 p. m. — Bing Crosby (WIBA): with Actress Lucille Ball and Maj. Thomas Powers of the air corps as guests.

9 p. m. — Rudy Vallee (WIBA): Edna May Oliver tries a comeback aided by youngster John Barrymore.

Drama

7:30 p. m. — The Aldrich Family (WMAQ): unlucky at cards and love in one night.

8:30 p. m. — Big Town (WBBM): at a new time, presenting a reckless driving story: "A Devil Rides At Your Elbows."

9:15 p. m. — What is a Fleet? (WBBM): beginning the history of the United States navy.

Musical

9 p. m. — First Piano Quartet (WENR): Rimsky-Korsakow's "Bumble Bee" and medley of Stephen Foster tunes.

12 p. m. — Music You Want (WENR): all-Romberg program.

Discussion

11:05 p. m. — Pan-American Conference (WIBA): Edward Tomlinson from Rio de Janeiro.