

Woolcott To Be Guest On "Information Please" Show

Kieran, Taylor, Adams And Fadiman To Have Hands Full; "Gang Busters" Schedule A Spine-Tingler For Friday

A reasonable facsimile of "The Man Who Came to Dinner" is coming to "Information Please" for the fourth time on Friday, to insult Master of Ceremonies Clifton Fadiman, Experts John Kieran and Deems Taylor and fellow member of the Thanatopsis Literary and Inside Straight club Franklin P. Adams at 8:30 p. m. over WEAF.

His name is Alexander Woolcott and his good friends Kaufman and Hart made no bones about "The Man Who Came to Dinner" being "an unexpurgated edition" of our hero. Some of his other friends deny this.

The arm of the law can be very long when it brings to justice an international smuggling ring such

YOUTH PUT IN NEW DIVISION

(Special To The Lima News)
SPENCERVILLE, Jan. 23—Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Goss have received word from their son Ned, who recently enlisted in the photographic division of the Army Air Corps and was stationed at Biloxi, Miss., to the effect that he has been transferred to the morale department of 408th School Squadron, Wichita Falls, Shepard field, Texas. This squadron is made up of men from induction centers all over the United States.

Goss, a talented musician, received his promotion after being heard playing the piano by scouts from the orchestras of Tommy Dorsey and Ted Fiorita.

One expert has predicted that apartment blocks may one day be built without stairs. Gentle slopes would replace the familiar staircase.
