

Alexander Woolcott Returns to Information Please Tonight

Backstage

Elizabeth Reller, who plays the part of Nurse Ann Malone in Columbia network's week-day serial, "Young Dr. Malone," cuts herself in on a cup of ice cream that Alan Bunce, who plays husband Dr. Jerry Malone, had hoped to have all for himself.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner" or just plain Alexander Woolcott will return for the fourth time to Information Please tonight at 7:30 through WMAQ to continue his heckling of Clifton Fadiman, John Kieran, Deems Taylor, and Franklin P. Adams.

Other highlight programs tonight, classified:

Musical

7 p. m. — Lucille Manners (WIBA): singing Helen Morgan's favorite, "My Bill."

8 p. m.—Waltz Time (WIBA): the music of Carrie Jacob Bond.

9:15 p. m.—First Piano Quartet (WIBA): repeat performance of Saint-Saen's "Danse Macabre."

Drama

8 p. m.—Playhouse (WBBM): Brian Donlevy in "The Great McGinty," a ward heeler makes the grade . . . Gangbusters (WENR): smashing the smuggling ring.

8:30 p. m.—Michael Piper, Detective (WENR): the farmer died . . . First Nighter (WBBM): "Murder by Night," or suicide.

9 p. m. — Wings of Destiny (WMAQ): a movie star turns detective in the "Case of Feminine Allure."

9:30 p. m.—Grand Central Station (WMAQ): Margot Stevenson, of the Broadway stage, in an original story.

10:30 p. m.—Unlimited Horizons (WIBA): the history of Dr. A. L. Kroeber's excavations in Peru.

Variety

7 p. m.—Kate Smith (WBBM): with Tallulah Bankhead in an original story.

8:30 p. m. — Dog House (WMAQ): the Wiggins family move in enmasse.

9 p. m.—Party Line (WENR): Elsa reports ala-Winchell . . . Ransom Sherman (WBBM): as Hap Hazard and his Crestfallen Manor plus Songstress Martha Tilton.

10 p. m. — Charles Laughton (WENR): Bob Crosby is on trial because of his "Zoot Suit".

Frequencies

WIBA . . . 1310 WGN 720
WHA 970 WIND 560