vestigates his disappearance on the "Hot Copy" dramatic episode, Saturday at 10:30 p. m. over WEAFL.

Given a body, a deck of cards and four persons with a motive, Elley Queen will vie with a couple of figure experts, Gypsy Rose Lee and Norman Corwin, in figuring out "The Adventure of the 52nd Card" Saturday at 7:30 p. m. over WEAFL.

Eddie Collins, vice-president of the Boston Red Sox and in his day quite some shakes as a second baseman, will be the guest star on Bill Stern's "Sports Newsreel of the Air" Saturday at 10 p. m. over WEAFL. The program will originate at the Hartford (Conn.) Sportsman's Show, of which Bill is master of ceremonies.

A man who collects anything and everything pertaining to that weird and little known country, Tibet, will be guest star on Dave Elman's popular "Hobby Lobby" program Saturday at 8:30 p. m. over WABC. He is Thomas Brook, of Chicago, Ill., who has spent many years in the Orient, and for a time lived on the very border of the dreaded Tibet country.

"The National Barn Dance," complete with the regular hay-bands and Billy Murray, will shuffle off to Buffalo in behalf of the local "Smokes for Soldiers" campaign Saturday at 9 p. m. over WEAFL. Scenes of the broadcast will be the vast Buffalo auditorium where the program is scheduled to take on a distinctly military flavor.
