

Another Birthday, Sch, 80, Tonight

Radio will pay tribute to another birthday, that of Walter Damrosch. Students and friends who will salute the aged composer and music teacher on his 80th birthday anniversary include Leopold Stokowski, conducting a string orchestra; Dr. Frank Black conducting the NBC Symphony; Gladys Swarthout, mezzo-soprano; Richard Crooks, tenor; Joseph Hoffman, pianist; Albert Spalding, violinist; Charles Kullman, tenor; Agnes Davis, soprano; Earl Wrightson, baritone; John Charles Thomas, baritone, and the U. S. army band. Station WIBA will broadcast the hour-long program at 8 p. m.

Other highlight programs for tonight follow, classified:

7 p. m.—Treasure Hour of Song (WGN): Josephine Tumina coloratura soprano, sings "Gianina Mia" from Friml's operetta, "The Firefly."

8 p. m.—Hit Parade (WBBM): with Connie Boswell as singer of week.

Musical

6 p. m. — People's Platform (WBBM): "American Agriculture and Total Food for Victory Production."

Discussion

6:30 p. m. — Ellery Queen (WMAQ): "The Adventure of the 52nd Card," with Gypsy Rose Lee and Norman Cowin as guest detectives.

7 p. m. — Knickerbocker Playhouse (WMAQ): "Abie's Irish Rose," crisis in the love affair.

9:30 p. m. — Hot Copy (WIBA): a youth serves his country—without enlisting.

Variety

8 p. m.—Barn Dance (WLS): an-all army show from Buffalo.

9 p. m. — Believe It or Not (WIBA): Brazil's coffee and a hemisphere love story.

Sports

9 p. m. — Bill Stern (WMAQ): Dick Powell and Baseball Executive Eddie Collins, guests.

Miscellaneous

7:30 p. m. — Hobby Lobby (WBBM): a collector of Tibet-pieces, and another of surgical instruments tell of their hobbies.