

Greer Garson, Pidgeon Will Co-Star On De Mille Program

"Blossoms In The Dust" To Be Heard At 9 P. M.
Monday; Dr. I. Q. Moves Show To Houston, Texas

Beautiful Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon, stars of the film "Blossoms in the Dust," will be co-starred in Cecil B. DeMille's Radio Theatre adapt of the moving story of mother love and sacrifice Monday at 9:00 over WABC.

Dr. I. Q. (Jimmy McClain), whose cash and quiz program will wind up a whirlwind series of appearances at Buffalo Monday, is hopeful he will be in better voice for the broadcasts in Houston, Texas, ninth city on his schedule.

Still recuperating from a severe attack of laryngitis, Jimmy hopes the Texas climate will complete his cure. He will present his popular program from the Metropolitan Theatre of that city, Monday, at 9:00 p. m. over WEAF.

Dr. Merriek McCarthy, a retired American surgeon now living in Cincinnati, has written a "British Children's Prayer" which will have its premiere on the "Telephone Hour," Monday, at 8:00 p. m. over WEAF.

Jacques Wolfe, author of the perennial favorite "Shortnin' Bread," has set the inspirational words to music. The Bell Chorus will sing the number.

Lovely Merle Oberon will recreate the role of Kitty which she played in the film story, "The Dark Angel," on the "Cavalcade of America" program Monday at 7:30 p. m., over WEAF.

Life on the Mississippi and such literary folk as Tom Sawyer, Huckleberry Finn and Indian Joe will pass in review when the musical portrait of Mark Twain is presented on the "Carnation Contented" program, Monday at 10:00 p. m. over WEAF, under the direction of the gifted conductor-composer, Percy Faith.

Elizabeth Lennox, contralto, and Norman Cordon, bass-baritone of the Metropolitan Opera, will share guest honors on "For America We Sing" over WJZ Monday at 9:30 p. m. with Frank Black's orchestra. Highlight of the broadcast will be a grouping of American and British songs of the sea. Included are "Sailing, Sailing," "Midship-rite," "Sailor's Hornpipe," "Away to Rip," "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean," "Blow the Man Down," "Nancy Lee," "Rule, Britannia" and "Anchor's Aweigh." The weekly Sousa march by Black and the orchestra will be "Semper Fidelis."
