LIMA NEWS

Crosby And Bob Cats To Be Heard With Mickey Rooney

Vic Mature And Charles Coburn Set For Guest Appearances On Music Hall Program On Thursday Evening

Bob Crosby, popular young orchestra leader of radio and the films, and his Bob Cats will complete the Music Hall's guest panel for the airing of Thursday at 9 p.m. over WEAF. As previously announced, filmactors Victor Mature and Charles Coburn will put in guest appearances.

Charles Coburn will put in guest appearances.

Mickey Rooney, who is substituting as emcee for Bing Crosby while the old maestro participates in golf tourneys

Cross, will sing "Love's Got Nothing On Me" with the Music Maids and Hal.

With Mary Martin he will sing "Our Love Affair." Mary's songs

for the benefit of the Red!

will be "Everything I Love,"
"Don't Want To Walk Without
You" and a surprise number,
"Money", snorts John Barrymore, "of course I understand money. In some quarters I am called Barrymore the Wolf'"

"The title," adds the Great Profile, "refers strictly to Wall Street."

On Rudy Vallee's show at 10 p. m. "The Wolf" is due to be duped. Barrymore's financial wizardry, according to advance information, enables him to slip easily into the role of a banking house president. Woe befalls the House of Barrymore, tho, when Humphrey Bogart, Hollywood's number one bad man, tackles the office safe.

Maudie and Davy—much to their dismay, find themselves heirs to an over-exhuberant monkey in the latest episode of "Maudie's Diary," to be presented at 9:30 p. m. The zealous little ape causes Maudie no ends of confusion, bringing her to

Are the Craviest People,"

A trio of high-powered stooges,

grim realization that "Monkeys

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19
Eastern War Time P. M.—Subtract One Hour for CWT., 2 Hrs. for MWT.
(Alterations in monages as betted due ready to heckle at the drop of an eyelash, plan to get in Frank Fay's neatly-combed hair over WEAF at 10:30 p. m. EWT. They are Ruth Weston, Ted Reid and Eddie Parks, who have sneaked into Fay's scripts before for a barrage of laughs. They refuse to divulge just what they have doped out for their attack on Fay but they promise to tickle every funnybone anywhere near a radio set. Between times Bob Hannon, Beverly and her Boy Friends and Harry Staiter's orchestra will attend to the music and Fay has another popular song to dissect.

"Just Troupers," based upon a story by Lewis Davidson published by a national magazine, will star Edward G. Robinson in Thursday over WABC.

9:30 p. m.

Munson, charming screen star, will be heard in the feminine lead in this Rinso production.

Adapted by Crane Wilbur, who produces "Big Town," the story has to do with a tour of stars to entertain service men in the various camps through the country.

"Big Town"

A snowstorm however, threatens to sabotage the opening and Steve Wilson, managing editor of the Illustrated Press, tries to solve the problem. He invokes the assistance of a group of former vaudeville headliners living at a home for aged actors and the developments which follow

NO FORMALITIES