

Barymores to Appear Tonight on WIBA

The Barymores—John, Lionel, and Diana — will steal the airwaves' spotlight tonight at 9 through WIBA. Appearing together for the first time, the trio will team up with Rudy Vallee and Joan Davis in a "serious" mood.

Other highlights for tonight and Fridaytime follow, classified:

Discussion

8 p. m.—America's Town Meeting of Air (WENR): Participants include Commentator Helen Hiatt, Ambulance Driver A. Estelle Lloyd, Psychiatrist Dr. Gregory Zilboorg, and Psychologist David Seabury on "The War and Our Nerves."

Variety

7 p. m.—Service With a Smile (WLS): from Ft. Bragg, army talent.

8 p. m.—Bing Crosby (WIBA): with Donald Crisp, Academy award winner; Cornelius Warmerdam, athlete, and Jack Teagarden, slide trombonist.

8:45 p. m.—Treasury Star Parade (WGN): with Ella Logan, vocalist; Olsen and Johnson, comedians; Carmen Miranda, South American songsstress; Al Goodman's orchestra, and Lieut. Robert Montgomery, mc.

Music

9 p. m.—First Piano Quartet (WENR): Prokofieff's Prelude in C Major, Opus 12, No. 7; Faure's "Romance Sans Paroles," and Dukas' "Sorcerer's Apprentice."

6:30 p. m.—Maudie's Diary (WBBM): new love troubles.

7 p. m.—Death Valley Days (WBBM): religion on the covered wagon trail.

7:30 p. m.—Henry Aldrich (WMAQ): Henry discovers a rubber shortage—on his foot.

Fridaytime

1:30 p. m.—Music Appreciation Hour (WIBA): voice-music.