

Unusual Attractions To Be Heard On Elman's Program

"Hobby Lobby" Will Visit Flint, Mich., Saturday; "Truth Or Consequences" Will Mark Anniversary

Ann Vivian of Chicago, can strike up a mean melody by firing a gun at a xylophone. And at a good distance! To prove it, she will be a guest star on Dave Elman's "Hobby Lobby" program, Saturday at 8:30 p. m. over WABC when the program visits Flint, Mich., for that city's annual hobby show.

Among the other hobbyists will be B. W. Cooke, of Glen-coe, Ill., who collects walking canes; Mrs. J. L. Johnson, of Aurora, Ill., who collects antique witch balls and Earl Pil-cher, of Dallas, Tex. who makes music by squeezing his hands together.

"Truth or Consequences," radio's dizziest quiz, will celebrate its second anniversary on the air, Saturday at 8:30 p. m. over WEA-F with a program of the funniest moments in the audience partici-pation program's history.

A warning to valley community dwellers likely to be affected by spring floods, will be dramatized in the American Medical Associa-tion's drama, "Doctors at Work," Saturday, at 5:00 p. m. over WEA-F. The script, as written by Bill Murphy, stresses precautions to be taken against typhoid.

Tris Speaker, the great gray

Automotive

Automobiles For Sale . . . 79

Buy An R & G

eagle of baseball who now is Cleve-land's boxing commissioner, will come to New York as a guest on Bill Stern's "Sports Newsreel of the Air" Saturday at 10:00 p. m. over WEA-F.

That emotion to which young men's fancies always turn will be reflected musically on the "Na-tional Barn Dance's annual frolic in the old hayloft on the first day of spring, Saturday, at 9:00 p. m. over WEA-F. Red Foley and Bill Murray are to be guest soloists and Pat Buttram is joining the regular cast.

Ellery Queen, master sleuth, has solved many a baffling mystery in his day including that of why railway coach windows won't open, but on Saturday, at 7:30 p. m. over WEA-F he tackles one that should scramble his relays: "The Adventure of the Out-of-Order Telephone."

SATURDAY, MARCH 21