

Ink Spots Will Be Heard On Crosby Hour Thursday Night

Sepia Singers Expected To Offer New Samples Of Sizzling Harmony; Robert Preston Also Set For Guest Appearance

The Ink Spots, sepia singers of a style low-down and hot, will come back to the Crosby Music Hall, at 9 p. m. Thursday on WEAJ with new samples of the sizzling rhythm and harmony. The swing and boogie-woogie specialists stopped the show on their appearance last fall.

Bing Crosby will be host to an Army representative and to Robert Preston, husky and handsome screen actor who currently is drawing acclaim in "Reap The Wild Wind." The Crosby regulars—Mary Martin, Victor Borge, John Scott Trotter and the Music Hall Maids and Hal—will be on hand with new musical and comedy features.

The Great Gildersleeve, pompous, lovable and laughable, will guest on the Rudy Vallee stanzas Thursday, 10 p. m. via WEAJ. In a skit featuring Cesare Romero as a night-club proprietor, Rudy Vallee as the big orchestra leader, Joan Davis as his country sweetheart and John Barrymore as the farmer girl's papa, Gildy will be featured as a night club patron.

Gail Laughton, who can make the harp give out with plenty of "boogie woogie" when the occasion warrants, will be spot-lighted on the Al Pearce show Thursday at 7:30 p. m. over WEAJ when he plays "St. Louis Blues."

The fated calf, prepared for Henry Aldrich's homecoming, turns out to be a "turkey" when the boy doesn't stay in the house

THURSDAY, MARCH 28

Eastern War Time P. M.—Subtract One long enough to be recognized in "The Aldrich Family," starring Ezra Stone, over WEAJ Thursday at 8:30 p. m.

Four distinguished authors and journalists, all authorities on various aspects of Far Eastern affairs, will debate the subject "What Are We Fighting For in the Orient?" when they appear on "America's Town Meeting of the Air" Thursday at WJZ at 9 p. m.

Two teams of four soldiers will compete in a question-and-answer contest and others will compete in a contest for singers when "Service With a Smile" moves into Pine Camp Military Reservation here for its Thursday session over WJZ at 8 p. m.

UTAH, DESERT STATE, GETS RECORD RAINFALL IN YEAR

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 26 — Utah, whose vast