

Quartet Of Hollywood And Broadway Stars On Program

John Garfield, John Carradine, Henry Hall And Katherine Locke Will Have Leading Roles On "This Is War!" At 7 P. M. Saturday

A quartet of Hollywood and Broadway stars, John Garfield, John Carradine, Henry Hall and Katherine Locke, take the leading roles on "This Is War!" Saturday, at 7 p. m. over WABC. They are heard in "It's in the Works," a dramatization of America's vast production effort written by Norman Corwin, director of the giant four-network morale series.

"It's in the Works" describes the gargantuan task of war-machine building confronting the nation, tells what has been done and presents a picture of what must be done in the immediate future. The broadcast treats of this phase of the war from three angles, those of labor, industry and public.

Leo G. Carroll and Judith Evelyn, who have plenty of problems as stars of the current hit melodrama, "Angel Street," will add the "Adventure of the Servant Problem" to their troubles as guest armchair detectives of the "Ellery Queen" program Saturday, at 7:30 p. m. over WEAJ.

Shella Barrett, hailed far and wide as the Great Female Impersonator, will run thru one of her own imitable dramas alone and unaided, when she fills the guest star spot on "Ted Steele's Studio Club" Saturday, at 10:30 p. m. over WEAJ. Ted, singing m. c. of radio's version of a night club floor show, will join her in a second dramatic effort.

That dizzy quiz made out of a parlor game, that rough-house program where everybody has gun, that "Truth or Consequences," is at last going to "tell it to the Marines." On Saturday, at 8:30 p. m. over WEAJ, Ralph Edwards and the show will be at the Quantico (Va.) Marine Base and marine privates themselves will have to "take the consequences."
