

"Front Page" Will Be Aired At 2 P. M. Sunday

Charlie Hardwicke Set As McCarthy Guest; Jack Benny To Do Comedy Skit With Paulette Goddard After Own Show

Final production, "Famous Fireside Plays" will be one of the most famous of all newspaper dramas, "The Front Page", by Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur, to be broadcast at 2:00 p. m. over WJZ.

"The Front Page", the most popular of the Hecht-MacArthur plays, was produced in 1928 with Lee Tracy in the

7, MARCH 29

2 P. M.—Subtract One Hour, 2 Hrs. for MW1. Programs as listed due to changes by networks!

Commentary—nbc-red
Meet—Continued—blua
The Air Sermons—cbs
Annie—nbs-midwest
Symphony Orchest—nbc-red
On Moxley—nbs-basle
Dramatic Drama—nbc-red African Songs—blue
of '42, Victory—cbs
Hour—nbs-midwest
Serenade—nbc-red
The Plays Hour—blue
Ship Opera Hour—cbs
Songs of Safety—nbs
Repeat—nbs-west
Lago Roundtable—nbc
Variety Show—nbs
The Dog Chat—nbc
Thea, Speakers—blue
Symphony—cbs
Speak, from Peru—nbs
Comment—nbc-red
Thea, Guest—nbc-red
Health Clinic—nbs
15 Mins—nbc-red
Dr. Fosslek—blue
at 10 m.—nbs-east
In repeat—nbs-west
Scrapbook—nbc-red
Thea's Dramas—nbc-red
Blind the Milk—blue
Orchestra—cbs
Church—nbs-basle
Lead—nbs-New Eng.
ounced (30 m)—nbc
Yodeler—blue-east
Orchestra—blue-west
at 5 m.—cbs-basle
& Songs—cbs-Dixie
Slugging, Choral—nbs
Daily Sketch—nbc-red Speakers & Variety—blue
at 10 m.—nbs-basle
1st—nbs-New Eng.
In Comment—cbs
Radio Service—nbc-red
Lands of Music—blue
Sunday Theatre—cbs
Log Quiz Show—nbs
Eldersleeve—nbc-red
In Comment—blue
Songs and Drama—cbs
at 10 m.—nbs
Roosevelt Talk—blue

leading role of Hildy Johnson, happy-go-lucky reporter of the old school.

Sooner or later they all show up for a verbal duel with puckish Charlie McCarthy headline personalities from the realms of music, films and the stage. The eminent British actor Sir Cedric Hardwicke is the latest to accept the McCarthy challenge and the battle will occur during the program airing of Sunday at 8:00 p. m. over WEAZ.

Jack Benny will break all Hollywood speed records Sunday, when he co-stars with Paulette Goddard in "Parent by Proxy" on the Screen Guild Theatre broadcast over WABC at 7:30 p. m. Immediately after completing his own show on WEAZ at 7 p. m.

Joan Lockwood, British intelligence service agent, finds the magical black diamond and captures the elusive Sultan of Natunna but both turn out to be phonies in the seventh reel of Fay Garnett's mystery adventure series, "Three Sheets to the Wind", Sunday, at 11:30 p. m. WEAZ.

Cueing the program to the Easter season, "American Album of Familiar Music" presents three sacred compositions on Sunday. Frank Munn sings Faure's "The Palms", Vivian della Chiesa offers Gounod's "O'Divine Redeemer"