

Broadcast, Features Offered Arves Easter

Religious services and Easter music will mark radio's observance of the holiday today, and along with these features will come others unrelated but of unusual interest.

Dr. C. A. Elvejhem of the University of Wisconsin, noted biochemist, will speak on the importance of natural foods to health during Listen America at 3:30 p. m. over WIBA. Jane Cowl, actress, will share top billing on the program.

The Army Show, a new series sponsored by the war department, will be heard at 2:30 over WIBA. Among the speakers will be Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson, Lieut.-Gen. Hugh A. Drum, Ben Lear, Walter Krueger, and John L. Dewitt, and infantry privates at Ft. Meade. Two overseas reports will be offered, as will music by a 95-voice army choir.
