Among the other hobbyists will be Mrs. Wales Latham, of New York City, founder of Bundles for Britain; Kenneth Wolf, of Cleveland, Ohio, whose hobby is chemistry and Mrs. A. H. Stiles, of Jeffersontown, Ky., who collects music in boxes.

Madeleine Carroll, the "desert island" girl for males by the million from Yale's campus to the Frisco waterfront, takes a sportive turn with Bill Stern on the "Sports Newsreel of the Air" show Saturday at 10 p. m. over WEAF.

"Call of the West," original comedy dramatization of red-blooded adventure during frontier days of starring cowboy movie hero Roy Rogers, will be presented over WJZ from Hollywood on Saturday at 9 p. m., EWT.

Reliving the pagentry of the old west, when Buffalo Bill, Kit Carson, and Wild Bill Hickok administered justice and retribution with blazing six-guns, the drama was written and will be directed by Myron Dutton, dramatic director.

Appearing under auspices of the Cleveland Athletic club, for the benefit of the Cuyahoga County Civilian Defense Fund, the "National Burn Dance" of NBC will turn the Cleveland public auditorium into a reasonable facsimile of the old hayloft, to make its first broadcast from Ohio on Saturday, at 9 p. m. over WEAF.
