

Five screen and air personalities will star in a special network broadcast presented by the drug trade tonight to start its $20,000,000 War Savings stamp drive. Madeleine Carroll, Red Skelton, Jean Hersholt, Bea Wain, and Peter Van Steeden will participate in the show, to be aired at 9:30 by WIBA.

Other attractions tonight:

Music

6:15 p. m. — Lanny Ross (WBBM); and Jean Dickenson; "I Dream Too Much," "You Are My Song of Love," "Nora O'Neale," "With a Song in My Heart."

Drama

7 p. m. — Death Valley Days (WBBM): mystery of Utah's giant footprints.

7:30 p. m.—The Aldrich Family (WMAQ): Homer offers to give Henry the short off his back.

8:30 p. m.—Big Town (WBBM): flight to Europe.

Discussion

7:30 p. m. — People's Platform (WBBM): Jerome Walsh, Missouri attorney; Dr. Herold C. Hunt, Kansas City school superintendent, and Morton T. Jones, business man, on ways to check sixth columnists.

8 p. m.—America's Town Meeting (WENR): George V. Denny, Jr., Norman Thomas, Walter D. Fuller, and Jay Allen on "The Role of Criticism in Wartime," with James Lawrence Fly, chairman of Federal Communications commission, as moderator.

10 p. m.—Chicago Real Estate Board (WGN): Paul Porter of Office of Price Administration on "Our Wartime Economic Policy."

Variety

7 p. m.—Fanny Brice (WIBA): Daddy tries to keep a date with the boys.

8 p. m.—Music Hall (WIBA): Bing Crosby, Lieut. Commander Gene Tunney, Larry Adler, Joan Leslie, Mary Martin, Victor Borge.

9 p. m.—Rudy Vallee (WIBA): and John Barrymore face an overhauling at the hands of Reginald Gardiner.

Fridaytime

1:30 p. m.—Music Appreciation (WIBA): New York children salute Dr. Walter Damrosch as season ends.

2 p. m. — National League of Women Voters (WIBA): Edgar Ansel Mowrer on "United or Else."

2:30 p. m. — British - American Festival (WCCO, KMOX): works of Holst, Warlock and Saunders.

4:30 p. m.—Ted Husing (WCCO, KMOX): another Derby preview.