

Circus Impresario, Donald Crisp Set With Bill Stern

John Ringling North And Veteran Actor Will Double In Guest Spot During Broadcast Via WEA F At 10 P. M. Saturday

John Ringling North, circus impresario, and Donald Crisp, veteran character of stage and screen, will double in the guest spot on Bill Stern's "Sports Newsreel of the Air," Saturday at 10 p. m. over WEA F.

From the campus of Converse College in this thickly settled cotton mill section, WJZ. will broadcast the world premiere of a new American folk opera on Saturday from 8:30 to 9 p. m.

Titled "A Tree on the Plains," the work was commissioned by the League of Composers of New York in an effort to produce a musical drama inherently American. The music was composed by Ernst Bacon, dean of the School of Music at Converse; the text was written by Paul Hogan, novelist.

Raymond Week's "Arkansas," which Nelson Olmsted is to narrate during his "World's Greatest Stories" program, Saturday, at 11:15 p. m., over WEA F is generally accounted a perfect example of American folklore. The tale concerns an educated pig who wins prizes for his owner at every county fair, until he decides to return to his folks in the Ozarks.

The effect of vitamin tablets on an industrial worker's efficiency will be discussed on the American Medical-assn's program, "Doctors at Work," Saturday at 5 p. m. over WEA F.

"The flowers that bloom in the spring, tra la" will have something to do with the case when included as one of several flower tunes presented by members of the "National Barn Dance" gang Saturday at 9 p. m. over WEA F. Another Gilbert and Sullivan favorite "Dear Little Buttercup," will be highlighted by the Hoosier Hot Shots.
