Eddie, back in Hollywood after an absence of more than a year, pulls right out of the cinema capital to present the first of a series of broadcasts from service camps for the benefit of the boys in uniform. He will make several such visits during the remaining weeks of his current season.

The new song, which Dinah has selected for the occasion, is a little number entitled "Conchita Marcheta Lolita Pepita Rosita Juanita Lopez" which she thinks will equal "Yes, My Darling Daughter" and "Blues in the Night" in popularity. It is from the Paramount picture "Priorities of 1942" and was written by Jule Styne and Herb Magidson.

Nadine Conner, sensational young American lyric soprano, will join Nelson Eddy and Robert Arm-bruster's orchestra in their broadcast at 8 p. m. via WABC.

Miss Conner is a veteran of radio. Following a number of appearances in opera in California under the baton of Albert Coates, Miss Conner came to New York to make her debut in the Metropolitan Opera House Dec. 22, 1941, in Bruno Walter's revival in English of Mozart's "The Magic Flute."

Falling in love — with a dog, develops into a family conflagration of five-alarm proportions when Judy Graves, played by Shirley Temple, essays the leading role in a hilarious Girl-Meets-Dog debacle on the 9 p. m. WABC "Junior Miss" broadcast.

Judy, believing that a dog is a girl's best friend, sees no reason why Caesar, whom she finds running astray in the park, should be denied the privileges of the Graves dinner table, the cool, clean family bedspreads nor the use of father's old smoking jacket in lieu of a bath towel. Mr. and Mrs. Graves, however, are finally able to convince Judy and her friend, Fluffy, that the animal kingdom has definite limitations.
