It takes 28 sheep to outfit a single soldier—that's why wool is a weapon in total war. And because wool is a weapon, the cuff's on a man's trousers and the extra width of a woman's skirt may mean the difference between life and death on some battlefield.

That's why the story of wool, from sheep to battlefield, will be dramatized on Three-Thirds of a Nation over WIBA-WENR at 9 tonight.
